

XM radio has a great line up of traffic and weather channels as well as wonderful news and entertainment features.

This is a subscription service and is clearly the best way to provide entertainment and information on a timely basis without endless spot commercial ads.

To restrict the content would be unfair to XM supporters who have selected with their dollars this alternative to local, spotty coverage, commercial broadcasters.

Help protect our freedom of choice.

SA